

HARDING TELLS HIS VIEWS ON ISSUES

In Accepting Republican Nomination For President—Wants a "Republican" Peace

(By Associated Press)
Marion, O., July 22—A pledge of constitutional government, administered by party and not by individual and based on national rather than world ideals, was given by Warren G. Harding today in accepting formally the republican nomination for the presidency.

He welcomes a popular referendum on the League of Nations, advocated increased production to cut the cost of living, pleaded for obliteration of sectional and class conflict, and declared for industrial peace "not forced but inspired by the common weal."

Prohibition he gave only a passing notice, saying that despite divided opinion regarding the eighteenth amendment and that statutes enacted to make it operative there must be no evasion of their enforcement. He declared it his "sincere desire" that ratification of the suffrage amendment be completed to permit women to vote this fall in every state.

Reviewing and commending briefly many other planks of the party platform, the candidate declared for collective bargaining for farmers, repression of the disloyal, "generous federal co-operation" in rehabilitating the railroads, intelligent deflation of the currency, enlargement of government aid in reclamation, a genuine expression of gratitude to veterans of the world war, the maintenance of an ample navy and a "small army but the best in the world."

In his promise of a "party government," Senator Harding reiterated his belief that the Vice President should have a part in the affairs of the chief executive's official family and declared there also should be a "cordial understanding and co-ordinate activities" between the executive and Congress. "No man," he said, "is big enough to run this great republic. Our first commitment is the restoration of representative popular government, under the constitution, through the agency of the republican party."

Promising restoration of peace as soon as a republican Congress should send a peace declaration to a republican president for his signature, the candidate assailed the League covenant as brought home by President Wilson but declared the war's sacrifices would be "in vain if we cannot acclaim a new order, with added security to civilization and peace maintained."

"We republicans of the Senate," he continued, "when we saw the structure of a world supergovernment taking visionary form, joined in a becoming warning of our devotion to this republic. The republicans of the Senate halted the barter of independent American eminence and influence."

"We do not mean to hold aloof. We do not mean to shun a single responsibility of this republic. We were resolved then as we are today, and will be tomorrow, to preserve this free and independent republic. Let those now responsible, or seeking responsibility, propose the surrender, whether with interpretations, apologies, or reluctant reservations—from which our rights are to be omitted. We welcome the referendum to the American people on the preservation of America."

"With a Senate advising as the Constitution contemplates, I would hopefully approach the nations of Europe and of the earth, proposing that understanding which makes us a willing participant in the consecration of nations to a new leadership, to commit the moral forces of the world, America included, to peace and international justice, still leaving America free, independent and self-reliant, but offering friendship to all the world."

Declaring railway employees ought to be the best paid in the world, the candidate emphasized the responsibility of such service and added:

"The government might well stamp railway employment with the sanctity of public service and guarantee to the railway employees that justice which voices the American conception of rightness on the one hand and assures continuity of service on the other."

In his reference to prohibition and law enforcement he said: "People ever will differ about the wisdom of the enactment of a law—there is divided opinion regarding the Eighteenth Amendment and the laws enacted to make it operative—but there can be no difference of opinion about honest law enforcement."

Modification or repeal is the right of a free people, whenever the deliberate and intelligent public sentiment commands, but perversion and evasion mark the paths of the failure of government itself."

HARDING NOTIFIED; BIG DEMONSTRATION

(By Associated Press)
Marion, O., July 22—The republican campaign attained full speed ahead today with the formal notification of Senator Harding here, party nominee for the presidency. The ceremonies brought most of the big leaders and many thousands of Harding enthusiasts.

The town was decorated within an inch of its life, its citizens led off early today with a noisy demonstration. Then came delegation after delegation with bands blaring and colors flying. They arrived on 30 trains and countless automobiles. They moved past the Harding front porch and not content with showing themselves to the nominee, march and countermarched through the city in a riot of noise and colors.

COX TO MAKE HIS SPEECH AUGUST 7

(By Associated Press)
Columbus, O., July 22—Chairman White, of the Democratic National Committee, today announced that Saturday, August 7th had been chosen as the date for notification of Governor Cox of his nomination as the presidential candidate. The following Monday was fixed as the notification of Vice Presidential Nominee Roosevelt.

The Cox ceremonies will take place at his home near Dayton and those of Roosevelt at Hyde Park, his New York home.

Gov. Cox will leave here tomorrow to begin his speech of acceptance which he expects will require all of next week.

Completion of campaign plans engrossed Gov. Cox, the democratic presidential nominee; Geo. White, the new National Committee Chairman, and other leaders remaining over from the convocation of democrats. While hotel lobbies and other public places overflowed with republicans en route to Marion, for their presidential notification ceremonies, the democratic leaders worked all day in Gov. Cox's office and hotel conference rooms.

To inquire into the Kentucky situation, Gov. Cox telegraphed Senator Beckham, of Kentucky, to come here soon for consultation.

PROHI SCHEDULE IS AWAITING W. J. B.

(By Associated Press)
Lincoln, Neb., July 22—The Prohibition party today rearranged their convention schedule pending word from William Jennings Bryan as to his acceptance of the party nomination, on the assumption Bryan would accept. The platform committee was virtually ready last night with a tentative draft. Redrafting of the platform today, so members said, "there could be nothing in it which would not meet Bryan's wholehearted approval."

Chief among the redrafted planks were those dealing with the League of Nations, agriculture, profiteering and commerce.

NOT GUILTY PLEA WILL BE ENTERED

By Young Men Soon To Be Returned To Knox County To Be Tried

That Chester Phelps, Bradley Smallwood and Milford Lawson, three young men held in the local jail awaiting to be returned to Knox county the first of the month to be investigated by a grand jury for the alleged murder of Fred Fields, are innocent, asserts each of them.

All declare they will be able to vindicate themselves. They are prepared to return and face any court, they state, only asking that justice be done. All admitted with the exception of Lawson, when visited in their cell for an interview, that they knew Fields, who claimed that he had never seen the man. Phelps said Fields, who was a returned soldier, was a friend of his, and they were together the day before the murder, and had a nice time. He said Fields had, so the hotel clerk stated, $85 in money and a revolver, which he deposited at the desk the previous night. Phelps said he was shocked at the news of Fields' death; that he left Fields at 3 o'clock on the afternoon previous to the crime, and knew absolutely nothing about it. He spoke of his army record, but incidentally made no boast, and only gave information when questions were asked regarding his service. He said he fought under Captain Spencer, detailed the manner in which he was wounded at the battle of Belleau Wood, which was "hell on earth," according to his description. He did previous duty on the Mexican border, and also has an exemplary record as a result. Smallwood has also served in the army in Mexico and asked for and obtained a discharge in order to get to go to France and fight, but the armistice was signed after he had been in the service for but a short time. Lawson stated that he had never known Fields and denied emphatically having anything to do with the murder. He stated that he had money of his own and did not need to kill anyone for it. He declares there has been a big mistake through his having been held for the crime.

Referendum May Be Source of Settlement

Chicago, July 22—A decision tonight whether the 18 railroad unions would accept the $600,000,000 Railroad Labor Board wage award was promised today by T. E. Shepherd, when the brotherhood chiefs resumed their conference. The union officials refused to comment on reports that they were divided on accepting the award. Privately they said a referendum seemed only the possible course.

BRITISH MINISTERS ORGANIZE A UNION

(By Associated Press)
London, July 22—At least 25 Protestant ministers are reported to have died of starvation in England last year, and the parsons have now formed the National Clerical Union for "establishment of a minimum living wage for the clergy." While it is announced the union will follow the trend of trade unionism, clergymen have declared they have no intention to strike to enforce their demands. They will seek not only to establish a minimum wage, but also deal with provisions for adequate retiring pensions, and pensions for widows and orphans of clergymen.

Rev. C. H. Lloyd, acting secretary of the new movement, said few of the "inferior clergymen" earned more than 300 pounds a year and a great many earned less. The union will seek to enlist the sympathy of the public.

FURNITURE DEALER HAS RIGHT ADVERTISING DOPE

The W. F. Higgins furniture store, of this city, is co-operating with the manufacturers of the Sellers kitchen cabinet in a national advertising campaign this week. The same advertisement will appear on another page of this paper which will be run in the Saturday Evening Post issue of July 24. Mr. Higgins is a great believer in printer's ink, and realizes that if the big concerns of this country can afford to spend billions of dollars each year in advertising, he can well afford to place an advertising contract with his home newspaper.

RAILWAY RATES TO BE INCREASED

(By Associated Press)
Washington, July 22—Recommendations to the interstate commerce commission by railroad for increased passenger and freight rates to absorb the $600,000,000 wage award were completed today by railway executives in general session who proposed to distribute the wage increase equally between passenger and freight tariffs and estimate that passenger rates must be increased one-half cent per mile.

Chicago, July 22—A decision tonight whether the 18 railroad unions would accept the $600,000,000 Railroad Labor Board wage award was promised today by T. E. Shepherd, when the brotherhood chiefs resumed their conference.

The union officials refused to comment on reports that they were divided on accepting the award. Privately they said a referendum seemed only the possible course.

Big Shipment of Corn to Richmond

Big shipments of corn are being received in the city and the Zaring mill represents at present what is really to a great extent an immense storage house, since the shipments are the heaviest for some time, there being a corn shortage in Madison county this year, although the production is never sufficient for a great sale, most of it being retained for stock feed.

RECORD BREAKING SUMMER TERM CLOSES

Faculty Now Turns Attention To Regular School Work Which Begins Soon

Thursday marks the close of one of the most successful summer school periods ever conducted at Eastern Normal, and the departure of many students and teachers is being recorded since most of them the instructors anxious to get home to prepare for the taking up of school duties. The instructions and the various programs at the school just closing, much of which is credited to the keen foresight of President Coates of the institution, are declared to have been the most pleasant and beneficial in the history of the school. The attendance has been above the average, and there have been more coming from a distance than ever before, showing the campaign work is very effective. Many were unable to stay the full course owing to the inability to procure quarters, while some did not even take up their studies for the same reason. The work of constructing new dormitories promises to eliminate the regrettable feature another year, when the attendance generally is expected even to exceed that of this year, the banner year of the school.

There will be change of work at the school now, owing to the preparatory work incident to the coming term of school, since great preparations will be made for the reception of a large number of students who will be here for the fall and winter studies. There will be a number of new features and everything points to a most successful period.

Joplin, Judge Huston Quinn, of Louisville, and Prof. John L. Hill, of Georgetown.

Dr. Sampey is the dean of the school and has charge of the program. He was instrumental in securing Dr. Agar, the gifted minister of New York, for the conference.

This conference offers splendid opportunity for instruction and inspiration in Sunday School work and at the same time fine recreation under good conditions. For tennis, swimming, boating, fishing, all recreation and good fellowship, this camp is not excelled in the state. The camp is near and presents a real opportunity for Richmond people. Mr. L. J. Darter, 345 Association Building, Louisville, will give you further information and application blanks, or see any of the pastors.

Prof. J. Howard Payne To Take Short Vacation

Prof. J. Howard Payne will go to Newport, Covington, Ft. Thomas and other scenes of his childhood, the last of the week and spend a few days rusticiating—"rusticiating" he says. His friends advise that should there be a hurried call for him, send it to the Red's playgrounds, for quick service. Mr. Payne has been busily engaged in looking after the preliminary work for the school building improvements during most of the vacation thus far.

W. O. Mays and R. B. Terrill, chairmen of the Republican and Democratic county committees, respectively, have each submitted to the State Election Commission at Frankfort, a list of five names from which one member of each party will be selected as County Election Commissioner. The Republican list is composed of Judge E. C. Million, Waller Bennett, Paul Burnam, Sam P. Burnam, and W. O. Mays; the Democratic list being Chas. B. Terrill, C. C. Coy, H. C. Rice, Wearan Kennedy and R. E. Turley.

The present Republican commissioner is Judge E. C. Million and the Democratic commissioner C. B. Terrill. Sheriff P. S. Whitlock is ex-officio chairman of the County Election Board.

GYM CONTRACT LET

At a meeting of the Richmond High school board Wednesday night the contract for the high school gymnasium was awarded to Contractor J. C. Bowman, of this city, and it is expected work will be started within a very short time. The new building will be erected on the campus and 66x44 feet in dimension, and will admit of winter games being played throughout the winter period, and eliminate the necessity of renting space for amusements from other institutions. This is the first gymnasium to be erected by the city school board in any of the fourth-class cities in Kentucky, and it will be completely equipped with all apparatus utilized at various games. The improvement has been sought by many students for several years, and it is the intention J. Howard Payne to make this one of the leading features of the school, since it is the first time the students will have the opportunity of enjoying games at their home school, using their paraphernalia.

Joe Hagin In Auto Smash

Thomas B. Talbott, of Louisville, superintendent of Home Missions of the West Lexington Presbytery, with headquarters in Lexington, was painfully injured Tuesday night when the automobile in which he was riding collided with a wagon loaded with wheat on the Winchester pike near Lexington, as the party of which he was a member was returning from Salem church, Clark county. The Rev. Joseph Hagin, pastor of the Walnut Hills Presbyterian church, Rev. R. T. Gillispie, of Lexington, and Miss Una Gray Hagin were in the car with Mr. Talbott and escaped with a severe shaking up.

The Rhoda Royal circus after leaving Richmond was detained owing to a landslide south of the city for some time, but was able to proceed in time to fill its regular engagements. Weed cutting will be given attention along the highways of the county it is said, as soon as farmers can get their wheat out of the way.

TRAINING AT RIVER FOR ENDURANCE TEST

Will Woodard Has Four Kentucky Thoroughbreds Hardening For Great Contest

Up and down the hillside roadways of northern Madison county, and across the broad Kentucky river at Boonesboro, a little group of four blue blooded Kentucky thoroughbred race horses are being hardened for a great cross country contest to be held along in October. Will Woodard, one of the best known trainers and horsemen in the South, has charge of the band of thoroughbreds, and with assistance of jockeys and other helpers, has established a training camp at Boonesboro Beach. The topography of the country in that delightful section is ideal for giving the animals which will represent Kentucky in the big contest, just the toughness and stamina that they will need in the big race. There are good soft road along the river, hard pikes, rocky hillsides, and obstructions that must be cleared. It is thought that the entries in the big contest will find nothing along the 300-mile route to be covered, that the Kentucky horses have not encountered in their training work at Boonesboro.

The four thoroughbreds that Mr. Woodard is fitting for the big test will represent Kentucky and Kentucky's type of horse, in the endurance contest against English, Arabian, and other stock horses. These four horses were secured by an organization formed at Lexington, known as the Thoroughbred Endurance Test Club, of which Major Thomas C. McDowell is president and Tom Cromwell is secretary. The club may acquire as many as 12 to represent the thoroughbred in the contest, but at present Mr. Woodard is training four. They are David Craig, Moscow, U-24 and Helmet. David Craig has been known as more or less of a sprinter in his races, but is sound and it is believed that he will "go on" when asked. Moscow is a long distance horse. U-23 has not much of a reputation as a racer, but Helmet was a great runner, and has been siring some good ones at the farm of his owner, E. R. Bradley, the famous turfman, near Lexington. The club bought the first three but Bradley merely loaned the use of Helmet.

The endurance riding test will be over a distance of 300 miles from Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont, to Camp Devens, Mass. It will take place from October 11 to 15. Mr. Woodard is confident that he will have the horses entrusted to his care in the finest possible shape to answer any test by the time the date of the big endurance contest rolls around.

Harding For $1 Wheat

Senator Harding, republican nominee for the presidency, favors $1 a bushel for the farmer's wheat. He declared in a speech in the Senate during the discussion of the food control bill that $1 a bushel was enough for any man's wheat.

Now don't make any mistake about this. We are quoting David Lawrence, the celebrated political correspondent, who wrote a political letter every day for that good republican paper, the Lexington Leader, and other big city papers. Lawrence says that democratic national committee men dug up this speech of Harding's in favor of $1 wheat while they were meeting in Columbus, O., the other day. They found that friends of Gen. Wood had read it extensively against Harding in the primary campaign in the Buckeye State, and it was believed to have been one of the causes that caused Wood to run Harding a neck and neck race in the latter's own home state, and made him the last man in the republican primaries in many other states.

But here's what Lawrence says of the matter:

"There is no doubt as to the confidence in the democrats gathered here. They point to the republican nominee as one of their chief assets. It was some- what surprising to see the committee men in the way agricultural states looking up Harding's record. This sort of thing gave them an chance to verify rumors which they had heard concerning Harding's stand on public institutions."

For instance, Sam Amidon, national committeeman from Kansas, a state which has had a vigorous campaign against the Wilson administration for fixing the price of wheat and not feeling the price of cotton, discovered amid great glee that Warren Harding made a speech in the Senate when he voted for the food control bill, declaring in effect that a dollar was enough for a bushel of wheat. This speech was printed and sent broadcast by republican opponents of Senator Harding in the presidential campaign. This year in which Harding ran behind Wood, Lowden and Johnson.

Now, of course, Senator Harding wasn't expressing any ill feelings when he said $1 is enough to pay a farmer per bushel for his wheat. If he believed it during the time the food control bill was under way, during war times, when everything was mounting higher and higher, he must have meant what he said. He is entitled to his views, of course, but the voters who are to be called upon to decide their choice for a President in November are going to be much interested in these views. Senator Harding will undoubtedly have the support of those who see things as he does and will have the opposition of those who look at things from some other viewpoint. Farmers who are willing to sell their wheat for $1 per bushel will undoubtedly support Mr. Harding. We'd not be much surprised if those who feel that they cannot raise wheat successfully for much less than $2.65 or $2.70, which they are receiving now, might vote for Cox for President. Cox, who owns a big farm himself and raises wheat on it and knows what farm labor and other costs are today, isn't going to be found advocating any $1 wheat, and you can bet your sweet life on that. Think it over.

Lest We Forget

(From Louisville Post, July 21)

Two years ago today, July 21, 1918, French and American soldiers advanced three miles under artillery, machine gun and rifle fire north of Chateau Thierry, pushing back the German line as they went. Toward the close of the day a number of American regiments participated in the storming of Hill No. 193, and when the American flag finally waved in triumph over that bloody knoll, the bodies of hundreds of American dead marked the route over which that flag had been advanced.

Today, July 21, 1920, the country's honor is again in pawn at fate. One of the two great political parties in America has gone before this electorate on the issue that the war was a failure. The republican party, in framing its platform for this Presidential contest, did not see fit to properly commend the bravery of our soldiers, or to pledge the country to carry out those things for which those soldiers fought and died. There is in the republican campaign in the year 1920, no pride in the glorious achievements of our country, and no hope for those oppressed and sorely stricken nations whom we promised to aid in the task of preventing future wars. The Democratic party is pledged through its platform and its candidate, to carry out the unfinished task, to make it certain that these dead shall not have died in vain, and that America shall show the whole world that it is unashamed of the cause it fought for two years ago.

The work is in charge of Mr. Rober B. Terrill, Master Commissioner of Madison circuit court, assisted by Miss Louise Terrill, Mrs. J. N. Culton, Jr., and Mr. C. B. Terrill.

How Many Women Are Like This?

Can anything be more wearing for women than the ceaseless round of household duties? Oh! the monotony of it all—work and drudge; no time to be sick; tired, ailing, yet cannot stop. There comes a time when something "snaps" and they find themselves "simply worn out," and to make matters worse, have contracted serious feminine disorder which almost always follows the constant overtaxing of a woman's strength.

Then they should remember that there is no remedy like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—the experience of these two women establishes that fact:

Cedar Rapids, Ia.—"After the birth of my first child I had such painful spells that would not entirely for my household. I suffered for months and the doctor said that my trouble was organic ulcers and I would have to have an operation. That was an awful thing to me, with a young baby and four other children, so one day I thought of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and how it had helped me years before and I decided to try it again. I took five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and since then I have been a well woman, able to take care of my house and family without any trouble or a day's pain. I am really and truly thankful to your medicine any time. I am forty-four years old and have not had a day's illness of any kind for three years."

CENSORSHIP OFF IN MEXICO

(City Associated Press)

Mexico City, July 22.—Creation here of an official bureau of information for the foreign press was followed, within a fortnight, by the disappearance from the cable office in the city of the censors who, the constitution of 1917 to the contrary, had revised all messages, press messages in particular, for the last 10 years. Bringing the censorship to the attention of President de la Huerta has been the most notable feat thus far performed by the information bureau. All foreign correspondents have been listed and identification cards (photographs attached) issued to them.

EDWARDS SPEAKS HERE

W. H. Edwards, of Boyle county, who says and thinks that he is running for the democratic nomination for congress in the 8th district, spoke from the "band stand" to a crowd which gathered to hear him Wednesday night. Mr. Edwards takes a rather radical and novel view of many public questions today. This is his first visit to Madison in the campaign. Those who keep in touch with political conditions do not expect him to cut any figure in the primary which will be held August 7.

PUTS THE "DOUGH"

IN DOUGHNUTS

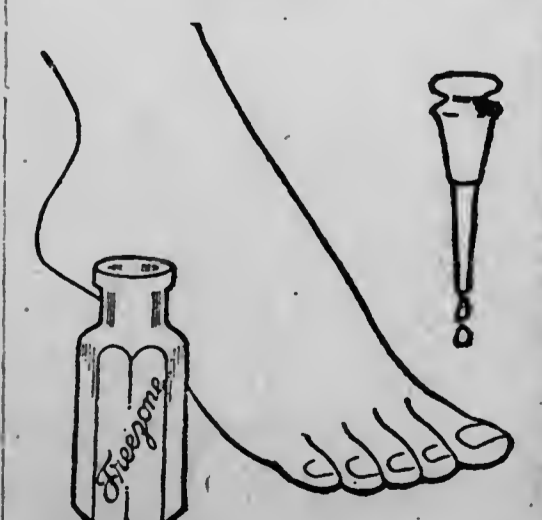

It was the consensus of opinion of a large number of ladies of Richmond that the Richmond Welch Company just naturally gets the best that comes along. This week they have had from the Corn Products Refining Company, of Louisville, a most amiable lady in the person of Mrs. Damon, who has been serving very liberally some of the most delicious doughnuts in which she uses Mazola, one of the widely known products of the refining company. The Sammy boys missed a wonderful treat in not having Mrs. Damon "over there" to feed them on the most wonderful doughnuts ever made. The demonstration comes to a close this afternoon, and from here Mrs. Damon goes to Berea, where she will make arrangements with her company to allow her to stay over for the Berea fair.

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. had us get Cardui. I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

TAKE

CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health. I can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

WILL MOVE BIG POLE

The telephone pole which has stood for years at the northeast corner of Main and Second streets will be removed perhaps Thursday, and placed in a position about ten feet to the east, on Main street, thus clearing the corner and providing a better curb. This will be the first time this corner has been disturbed since the erection of the pole several years ago. This is one of the most important corners in the business district of the city since the pole supports the huge cable lines and numerous wires, and is necessarily supported by several strong guy wires. The telephone company has considerable changing of wires during the paving work, owing to the change in the curb and gutter.

PAVING WORK HELD UP

The paving work, started some time ago, was held up Wednesday for the first time, and the first stop in operations during a week was caused by the absence of water. Without this, there is not much doing but it is hoped the delay will not be an extended one. The work has been started well, and in a very satisfactory manner, and it is the desire of those at the head of it to continue uninterrupted. However, the shutting off of the water caused the stop. Some of the concrete recently laid is showing good in the setting process, this being very favorable weather for it. This will admit of the laying of the asphalt within a short time in some localities. This work, however, will be taken up on Lancaster avenue, first and will follow the concrete as the latter is laid.

NEW TRUANCY LAW

The truancy law will be given attention in Madison county after the schools get under way, and investigation of the manner in which the law is upheld in other localities will be given attention, although there are not many cases of truancy reported either in Richmond or Madison county, considering the number of juveniles attending school.

The matter of making a physical examination of students is another thing that will be taken in all probability here, as well as elsewhere, this year, for the first time. There has been but little interference with school attendance here owing to illness. General health of the schools has been above the average, it is reported.

POPULATION OF HENDERSON

The population of Henderson, according to reports issued from Washington, shows an increase of 717 during the past ten years, the present population, according to the recent census being 2,169. The city, it is stated, has shown a steady growth, each year recording a gradual increase of a few permanent residents.

There will be a special derby at the Montgomery county fair and racing will be one of the features.

award made by the United States railway labor board. They are debating whether they should accept it as "the best they can obtain under the circumstances," or reject it and strike to enforce their demands. The award grants an aggregate pay increase of $600,000,000 a year, or an increase of 18 to 27 per cent for the men. The workers have asked for an increase of 60 per cent. Part of the sting is taken out of the award by the fact that it is retroactive to May 1. This is having influence on the deliberations of the men.

No Strike, Though

Washington, July 21.—"There will be no strike—you can rest assured of that."

This assurance, although given unofficially, represents the reaction at headquarters here of the American Federation of Labor on the wage increase awards announced just now by the railway labor board at Chicago.

While the increases allowed by the board, aggregating $600,000,000, are not entirely satisfactory, in that the amount to only about 60 per cent of the amount sought by the railroad workers, it was stated, they constitute a "good start" toward the desired total.

The opinion of the Federation officials is that the men will accept the board's decision, and then immediately "go back for more" through the same channels.
